SPOT THE BIG 5

Enjoy an early Morning safari around sunrise or the tranquility of an afternoon safari with sundowners – each one promising a unique experience. The wildlife experience will not disappoint with open 4 x 4 vehicle safaris exploring the one hundred and twenty square kilometres Big Five private game reserve. A wide array of activities are available such as hot air balloon safaris, horseback safaris, quad biking adventures and guided bush walks among others.

Witness herds of Impala, Zebra, Giraffe, and Ostrich peacefully grazing together on the vast open grassland plains; observe elephants maneuvering through dense bush to savor the freshest leaves; catch a glimpse of a secretive hippo pair revealing only their nostrils above the water's surface, and admire a pride of lions relaxing under the shade of an African thorn tree post-hunt.

20 EXQUISITE TENTED SUITES

Choose from 20 luxuriously appointed tents, set along winding sand pathways offering comfort and a luxurious ambience with private timber wrap around decks. All tented suites are perfectly appointed with sunken bath, a separate shower and toilet. All include a fully stocked mini bar and tea and coffee making facilities. Air-conditioning throughout ensure guests can enjoy year-round temperature controlled tented accommodation.

DINE UNDER THE STARS

Dining and wine at Safari Plains is a chic affair in the sophisticated dining rooms or experiencing a candlelit bush dinner accompanied by spectacular African entertainment. A safari for the palate as much as for the wildlife where the culinary team aim for the stars with new and exciting dishes presented to guests every day. Exploring the African skies in the bush is an extraordinary event, where guests are invited to join the after dinner stargazing activity.
